

Teaching Artful Practice/ Practice Artful Teaching

Franco American Heritage Center: October 6, 11:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Arts teaching professionals have much to share in their partnership to create personal artful pathways for students to express and explore creative voice through the arts. Using the Multiple Intelligences Theory, join us in a collaboration - defining, exploring, celebrating and understanding different practices of artful teaching. We will build a learning community that reflects the role the arts play in everything we do, teach and learn by strengthening the creative exchanges of artful process and practice.

$40 registration includes lunch, 4 contact hours provided (no cost for fulltime students).

Primary Presenter: Cheryl Hulteen

Cheryl has spent over 20 years providing consulting services for school districts, teachers, administrators, parents and students to foster greater learning and insight through building Creative Classroom Cultures. Author of "YES YES GOOD, The HeART of Teaching", she details working with stakeholders across the educational landscape to build exciting, innovative and positive environments for teaching, learning, and arts integrated curriculum development.

PROPOSED AGENDA (subject to change):

11:30 to 11:45 – Welcome and orientation

11:45 to 12:30 – Lunch

12:30 to 1:15 – Keynote presentation and Q&A

1:15 to 2:00 – Workshop

2:00 to 2:30 – BREAK

2:30- 4:00 – Workshop continues

4:00 Meeting adjourned

Guests are encouraged to attend the opening reception and keynote for the Maine International Conference on the Arts at the Franco Center beginning at 4:30.

Featuring keynote speaker is Crystal Williams, a poet, essayist, advocate, Associate Professor of English, and Vice President for the Office of Diversity at Bates College; speaking on "Practical Approaches to Creating Impact: Getting to Cultural Equity."

Please contact Argy Nestor for more information about this gathering or the Arts Education track at the Maine International Conference on the Arts: argy.nestor@maine.gov

MICA and Artful Teaching registration is located at <http://mica.bpt.me/>